OVERVIEW OF THIS GUIDE

This Voter Guide is intended to give you vital information about voting in North Carolina and about the candidates seeking election to the Supreme Court, Court of Appeals and the offices of Auditor, Commissioner of Insurance, and Superintendent of Public Instruction.

WHO CAN VOTE IN THE GENERAL ELECTION?

Anyone who is a registered voter in North Carolina can vote in the General Election. You must be a citizen of the United States, and a resident of North Carolina and the county in which you live for at least 30 days before Election Day, and you must be 18 years old on Election Day.

Registration forms can be downloaded from your County Board of Elections website as well as the State Board of Election's website. You can also register in person at the County Board of Elections or at any One-Stop location, at the local library, high school, any state office providing public assistance, or when you apply for or upon renewal of your driver license.

WHO PAYS FOR THIS GUIDE?

The cost of this Guide is paid by the Public Campaign Fund; it receives money from a voluntary $3 check-off designation on the state tax form and from a $50 surcharge on the annual dues attorneys pay to the State Bar. This Fund also helps judicial candidates who qualify for limited public campaign support. See page 3. No state General Fund tax money pays for this Guide.

WHAT IS THE $3 CHECK-OFF?

When you fill out your state income tax form, you can check a box for the N.C. Public Campaign Fund. (Checking "Yes" does not change a person's tax bill or refund; it just allocates $3 of taxes being paid to the Fund.) The "check-off" is the major source of revenue for the Public Campaign Fund and for this Voter Guide. Other sources include:

- A surcharge on attorneys' State Bar dues
- Money returned to the Fund from candidates
- Donations made to the Fund

HOW IS THE NORTH CAROLINA PUBLIC CAMPAIGN FUND FUNDED FOR THE SUPREME COURT AND COURT OF APPEALS CANDIDATES?

The North Carolina Public Campaign Fund is not funded by the General Fund. In addition to distributions to qualified candidates, all expenses for the program's implementation, including staff and voter guide production and distribution, are paid by the Public Campaign Fund.

There are five sources that provide revenue to the Fund. They are:

- Designations to the Public Campaign Fund by taxpayers. This is achieved through a positive check-off of three dollars on an individual's income tax form.
- Public Campaign Fund revenues distributed for an election that remain unspent or uncommitted at the time the recipient is no longer a certified candidate in the election. These funds are required to be returned by the candidate.
- Funds ordered to be returned to the Fund as a result of a violation by a "participating candidate."
- Voluntary donations made directly to the Public Campaign Fund. Corporations, other business entities, labor unions, and professional associations may make donations to the Fund.
- Money collected from the $50 surcharge collected from attorneys at the time of payment for their privilege license to practice law in North Carolina. This surcharge is

N.C. SUPREME COURT (NEWBY SEAT)

SAM J. ERVIN IV

Place of residence: Morganton, North Carolina

Education: Graduate, Freedom High School--1974; A.B., magna cum laude, Davidson College--1978; J.D., cum laude, Harvard Law School--1981

Occupation: Judge, North Carolina Court of Appeals

Employer: State of North Carolina

Date admitted to the bar: 1981

Legal/Judicial experience: I practiced law in Morganton, North Carolina, from 1981 until 1999; served on the North Carolina Utilities Commission from 1999 until 2009; and have served as a Judge of the North Carolina Court of Appeals from 2009 until the present.

Candidate's Personal Statement: The law is the glue that holds society together. For that reason, the law must be applied fairly, impartially, and without ideological, political, or personal bias. A Supreme Court decision has significant impact on the people involved and the State as a whole, since such decisions govern countless other cases across North Carolina. As a Judge of the Court of Appeals, I have produced over 325 opinions and helped decide over 900 cases involving many important legal issues. In deciding these cases, I carefully studied the facts and thoroughly reviewed the applicable law to ensure that I properly understood the controlling statutes, constitutional provisions, and judicial decisions. I will do the same thing as a member of the Supreme Court. I have been endorsed by the North Carolina Association of Educators, the North Carolina Association of Women Attorneys, the North Carolina Advocates for Justice, the North Carolina Troopers Association, and the Police Benevolent Association, among others.

Candidate's Personal Statement: I am seeking re-election as a Justice on the Supreme Court where I am privileged to have served our State for the last eight years. In every case I strive to fairly, impartially, and consistently apply the law, faithfully interpreting as intended the Constitution and statutes. I have a reputation of being an honest, hard-working, common-sense Justice. As a result, I have received endorsements from four former Chief Justices, two of each party, and have widespread, bipartisan support across our State.

I am often selected to educate other judges and lawyers and to teach law school courses because of my legal scholarship. I lecture and have written a book on the North Carolina Constitution and received the N.C. Bar Association's Constitutional Rights Award. Knowing the importance of civic education, I frequently speak to school groups and community organizations. As an Eagle Scout, I serve the Boy Scouts in numerous ways and have been recognized as Scouter of the Year. For my work with schools and scouts, I received the Citizen-Lawyer Award.

Legal/Judicial Experience: Judge, NC Court of Appeals since 1995; Partner in DiSanti, Watson & McGee, 1978-1995

Candidate's Personal Statement: During 17 years as a judge on the Court of Appeals, I have followed the law in making fair, impartial and unbiased decisions in more than 6,000 cases affecting the lives of people across our State. I base my decisions on the Constitution, the laws enacted by our legislature, and on fairness. Throughout my career, I have worked to protect the rights of families, businesses and individuals. DAVID S. ROBINSON

Place of residence: Raleigh, NC

Education: Georgetown University, School of Foreign Service; George Washington Law School

Occupation: Attorney

Employer: Special Counsel to Nexsen Pruet, a 190 lawyer firm with 8 offices throughout the Carolinas

Date admitted to the bar: North Carolina: 1990; US Supreme Court: 2012; US Court of International Trade: 2012

Legal/Judicial Experience: See below:

Candidate's Personal Statement: Courts should not make laws. I am the Conservative candidate and I will approach every case with diligence, integrity, and dedication. I will not 'legislate from the bench'. I respectfully request your vote on November 6.

I bring a lot of real-world legal experience to the bench. I've helped form small non-profits and represented billion-dollar companies that create jobs for North Carolinians. I've helped North Carolina companies export their products around the world. I routinely assist humanitarian organizations, Veterans groups and church organizations with their legal needs. I have been practicing law in North Carolina for over two decades; both in large law firms and as a small business owner.

Throughout my career, I've seen the legal systems of many nations, up-close and on their home soil. I have readily concluded that our legal system is second to none, and that our appellate courts must play a major role in creating a stable, reliable and predictable legal "playing field" for all North Carolinians and their businesses. As your conservative candidate, I believe we achieve this through judicial restraint, not activism. I need your vote on November 6, and I will serve you well.

Please visit my website: www.robinsonfornc.com for additional information.

Thank you for your vote.

WANDA BRYANT

Place of residence: Durham, NC

Education: Duke University, Bachelor of Arts; Oxford University, England, Summer Study; North Carolina Central University, Juris Doctor

Employer: State of North Carolina

Date admitted to the bar: August, 1982

Legal/Judicial experience: Judge, NC Court of Appeals; Senior Deputy Attorney General, North Carolina Department of Justice; Assistant United States Attorney for the District of Columbia; Staff Attorney, Police Executive Research Forum, Washington, D.C.; Prosecutor, 13th District (Bladen, Brunswick, and Columbus Counties)

Candidate's Personal Statement: Fairness and justice are cornerstones of my life. In 11 years on the Court of Appeals, I've written more than 1,200 opinions on issues that touch the lives of North Carolinians, from workplace injuries and commercial and employment disputes to family matters, criminal law, and property rights. I am passionate about the rule of law, and firm in my conviction that appellate judges must fairly and accurately apply the law in each case. In each opinion I have worked to provide a careful analysis of the facts and a fair and just application of the law.

I enjoy my current service as Chair of NCCU School of Law Board of Visitors, NC Bar Association Women in the Profession Committee, NC Museum of Sciences Friends Board, and Duke University School of Nursing Board of Advisors.

MARTY MCGEE

Place of residence: Concord

Education: The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, B.A. 1991; Wake Forest University School of Law, J.D. 1995

Occupation: District Court Judge

Employer: State of North Carolina

Date admitted to the bar: 1995

Legal/Judicial experience: District Court Judge, 2000-present; Practicing Attorney, 1995-2000

Candidate's Personal Statement: The Court of Appeals reviews the work of trial courts to ensure the proper application of our laws.

I have more experience as a trial judge than anyone currently serving on the Court of Appeals. I have presided over tens of thousands of cases involving criminal, family, juvenile and other civil law matters. More than a decade of work – in some of our state's busiest courtrooms – has ideally prepared me to meet the challenges of reviewing the decisions of our trial courts. Who better to evaluate the decisions of the trial courts than an experienced trial judge?

I regularly teach legal education courses to judges and lawyers. I enjoy the academic aspects of my work, but never forget that each case affects the lives of the persons who appear before me and our community.

Before becoming a judge, I represented people in courts ranging from small claims court to the Supreme Court of the United States.

I believe in judicial restraint. Our courts have an important, but limited role in our constitutional democracy. As a judge, my record is one of following the law regardless of my personal opinions or public pressures.

My wife, Debin, and I have two daughters and have been married more than 20 years.

Please visit judgemartymcgee.com. I would appreciate your vote.

CHRIS DILLON

Place of residence: Raleigh

Education: UNC Chapel Hill School of Law, J.D., 1990; B.S. in Business Administration, 1987

Occupation: Attorney and General Counsel

Employer: Self-employed

Date admitted to the Bar: August 18, 1990

Legal/Judicial Experience: Private practice-Solo practitioner and at a large firm; Small Business General Counsel

Candidate's Personal Statement: Thank you for your interest in learning about the judicial candidates. Many voters do not know a lot about the "down ballot" races, yet they are so important.

My name is Chris Dillon. I am running for a seat that recently became vacant. My opponent was appointed by the Governor last year to temporarily fill that vacancy. I would be honored to have your vote.

The Court would benefit from having a judge not only with years of legal experience but also real-life experience beyond working as an attorney. I have worked with people from all walks of life at a small business I helped start where I saw first-hand how the law impacts all of our lives.

I will apply the law impartially and not legislate from the bench. I will be fair and "call balls and strikes" without regard to who the teams are.

Finally, I truly want to serve. One of my favorite lessons from the Bible is that those in a position of authority should strive "to serve" rather than "to be served".

I am supported statewide by attorneys and people from all walks of life and political perspectives. So when you get to the back of the ballot, please vote for me, Chris Dillon.

NC Public Campaign Fund Program for Appellate Judicial Candidates

Candidates for the NC Supreme Court and the NC Court of Appeals can qualify for a limited amount of public financing for their campaigns. If they qualify, candidates stop regular fundraising activities for the General Election and use money provided to them from the NC Public Campaign Fund.

The decision to enroll in this program is optional. Candidates may receive public funding if they voluntarily:

- demonstrate public support by raising a set number of relatively small donations from registered voters, AND
- accept strict fundraising limits, AND
- accept strict spending limits.

The NC Appellate Courts

Appellate courts hear appeals regarding the decisions made in another court.

The NC Supreme Court is the state's highest court. It hears appeals of cases from the Court of Appeals and appeals of cases that have imposed the death penalty. There is no further appeal in North Carolina of its decisions, but in limited instances involving federal law, the U.S. Supreme Court may consider appeals from the NC Supreme Court.

Like the Court of Appeals, the NC Supreme Court has no jury. Its chief justice and six associate justices hear all cases together, as one sitting court. It considers errors in legal procedures or in interpretation of the law by a lower court.

The NC Court of Appeals hears appeals of all kinds of decisions of the state Superior and District Courts (the trial courts), from divorce cases to tax cases. It also hears appeals from administrative agencies.

There is no jury in the Court of Appeals. The 15 judges sit in rotating panels of three, considering errors in legal procedures or in judicial interpretation of the law. If a vote is 2-1, the losing party has an automatic right to appeal to the NC Supreme Court.

- The first source is from any voluntary donation made directly to the Voter-Owned Elections Fund.
- The second source is from appropriations from the state General Fund for the implementation of the Voter-Owned Elections Act.
- The third source is from Fund revenues that were distributed to candidates but were not spent or committed at the time a candidate is no longer considered a certified candidate for that election.
- The fourth source is any funds ordered to be returned to the Fund as a result of a violation by a participating or certified candidate in the program.
- The fifth source is from funds forfeited in excess of the $20,000 cap on contributions and expenditures between August 1st of the year before the election and the date of declaring a candidate's intent to participate in the Program.

ARE YOU A REGISTERED VOTER IN NORTH CAROLINA?

NO

Here's how to register

SIX WAYS TO REGISTER TO VOTE

1. IN PERSON, AT A COUNTY ELECTIONS OFFICE

You can find the address for your county elections office on the State Board of Elections website, www.ncsbe.gov or call (toll free) 866-522-4723. The county staff can help you with the registration form and answer your questions.

2. IN PERSON, AT ONE-STOP ABSENTEE VOTING SITES

Individuals who miss the registration deadline may apply to register in person and then vote at a One-Stop absentee voting site. These One-Stop absentee sites are open from Thursday, October 18 to Saturday November 3. Bring identification with you, like a driver's license, utility bill or government document with your current name and address. Contact your County Board of Elections for locations and hours or visit the State Board of Elections website.

3. IN PERSON, AT MANY GOVERNMENT OFFICES

You can get a registration form at DMV offices, Employment Security Commission offices, and most social service agencies. The agency will submit the completed form to the County Board of Elections. Many libraries, high schools, and institutions of higher education have forms as well.

4. IN PERSON, DURING A VOTER REGISTRATION DRIVE

Many civic groups and political parties set up tables at businesses or conduct registration drives to register people to vote. They typically submit the form for you; if not, mail it to the county board of elections yourself.

5. BY MAIL

You can complete and mail in your registration form. It must be received or postmarked 25 days before the General Election (October 12, 2012). You can get a form from your County Board of Elections, or print it from the State Board of Elections website at www.ncsbe.gov. Click on "My Elections Board" for a list of county board addresses.

6. PRE-REGISTRATION FOR 16- AND 17-YEAR-OLDS

A person who is at least 16 but will not be 18 by the date of the next election and who is otherwise qualified to register may preregister to vote. A pre-registrant can use the same form as other registration applicants. A pre-registered citizen will be automatically registered upon reaching voting age, following the verification of the person's qualifications and address. A person must complete a new pre-registration form if he or she changes residence. For more information, contact your County Board of Elections.

RULES ABOUT REGISTERING

You must provide your North Carolina driver's license number if you have one. If not, provide the last four digits of your Social Security number on the registration form. If you do not have either of these, then you may include with the form a copy of identification that shows your name and address, such as a utility bill or document from a government agency. Ask your board of elections for a list of acceptable identification.

THREE WAYS TO VOTE IN NC

1. IN PERSON ON ELECTION DAY

At your assigned polling place, you'll be asked to state your name and address and sign the pollbook before you vote. The polls open at 6:30 a.m. and close at 7:30 p.m. If you are in the line by 7:30 p.m., you will be able to vote. See the box, page 2, lower left, on how to find your polling place.

2. EARLY VOTING IN PERSON, BEFORE ELECTION DAY

From October 18 to November 3, every county has at least one site where you can register and cast a One-Stop absentee ballot. You do not need an excuse to vote early. Some sites are open beyond normal business hours. On Saturday, November 3, One-Stop voting ends at 1 p.m., but some sites may stay open as late as 5 p.m. Contact your county board of elections to find out where and when One-Stop absentee voting is available or go to the State Board of Elections website at www.ncsbe.gov.

3. MAIL-IN ABSENTEE BALLOT

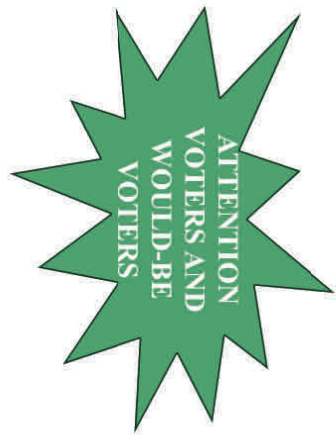

No later than 5 p.m. on October 30, 2012, you can request a no-excuse mail-in absentee ballot. The request must be written and signed by you or a near relative (a near relative is a spouse, brother, sister, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, stepparent, stepchild, or mother-, father-, daughter-, or son-in-law), or be on a form provided to you by your County Board of Elections. The request may be e-mailed or faxed to the County Board of Elections. A request should include: Your name, date of birth, residence address, address to which the absentee ballot should be mailed, and if the request is by a near relative, the near relative's contact information and relationship to you. Once a valid request is received, the County Board of Elections will mail a ballot and container envelope directly to the voter. The voted ballot must be returned by the voter no later than Monday, November 5. If you mail your voted ballot, it may still be considered timely if the return envelope is postmarked on or before Election Day and the ballot is received no later than 5 p.m. on November 9; however, it is best to return your ballot by November 5. Be sure to follow all the directions, including having one witness sign in the appropriate place.
